《中国船只救助引擎故障的韩国渔船》

A Chinese vessel (left) tows a South Korean fishing boat (center) to a repair depot near a port at East China's Zhejiang province for repair on May 11. The South Korean boat was trapped due to a malfunctioning engine in China's exclusive economic zone in the East China Sea on May 9. A Chinese fishery administration vessel and a fishing boat rescued it from severe sea conditions.
