:ovation　　　　　　?ovation　　　　　?ovation

ovation　　　　?ovation　　?ovation　　　　?　　　　　　　ovation

ovation

ovation　　　:[　　　ve　　n]

ovation

1　n.　　　　　;　　　　　　　;　　　;

ovation

1　standing ovation　　　　　　　　　;

ovation

1　applause n.　　　　　;　　;　　;

2　cheer v.　　　;　　;　　;　　;

3　endorsement n.　　;　　;　　;

4　standing ovation n.　　　　　;

5　thumbs up　　　　　　;

ovation

1　They had lost by a wide margin, but their supporters gave them a defiant, loyal ovation.

2　Mr Gould was given a standing ovation and loud cheers when he finished his speech.

3　Caption: Mr. Jobs was greeted with a standing ovation and lengthy applause by the crowd.

　　　:　　　　　　　,　　　　　.

4　The final piece won her a rapturous ovation from the audience.

　　　　　　　　.

5　When she walked onstage she was given a standing ovation.

6　She received a tremendous ovation.

　　　　　.

7　Education changes China and i ovation forges future!

　　　:　　　　,　　　　!

8   I got a standing ovation and many more days of work.

　　　　　　　　　　　，　　　　　　　　　　　　．

9   You've got a standing ovation going on here, get on and acknowledge it.

　　　　　　　　　　　　，　　　　　　！

10   The audience rose as one in a standing ovation.

　　　　　　　　　　　．

11   The Foreign businessman of the ovation come talks.

　　　　　　　　　　．

12   I want to thank you for that thunderous ovation.

　　　　　　　　　．

13   Liu got a warm ovation from the Bird's Nest crowd when his name was announced.

　　　　　　　，　　　　　　．

14   The orchestra received a rapturous standing ovation.

　　　　　　　　　．

15   Mr Romney won a standing ovation.

　　　　　　　　．

16   The play's cast a standing ovation.

　　　　　　　．

17   He received a standing ovation at the end of his speech at Cairo University.

　　　　　　　，　　　　　　．

18   The show won a standing ovation.

　　　　　　　．

ovation

ovatio

n　　　ovation　　　ovation　　　　　　　　　　https://dict.tjqzz.com/ovation